EDUCFIX SKILL ACQUISITION

This branch of EDUCFIX will pioneer the organizational agenda and plan. Hence, there will be three (3) stages involved:

Stage 1

SKILL EDUCATION, called CREATEHIVE

CREATEHIVE: formed from the combination of two words “Creativity” and “Hive Mind”. A hive mind typically refers to a collective consciousness or intelligence formed through the interconnectedness of individuals within a group. Examples include social insects like bees and ants, where individual actions contribute to the overall success of the colony.

Creativity, on the other hand, is often associated with individual expression, imagination, and the generation of novel ideas.

CreateHive means the generation of novel ideas backed up with collective intelligence formed through the interconnectedness of individuals within a group.

Aims and Objectives of CREATEHIVE

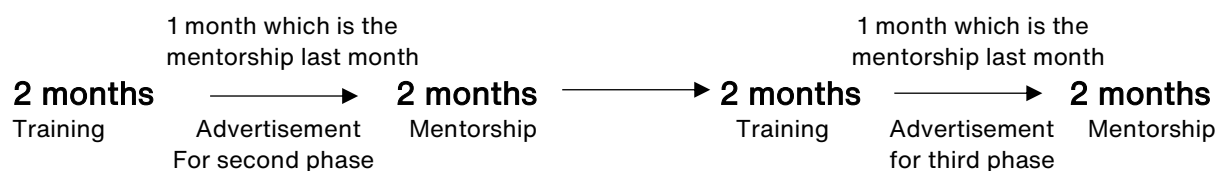

The main aim and objectives of CreateHive are:

1. To train and build leaders in the areas of skills.
2. To ensure the interconnectedness of individuals in the same niche.
3. To generate novel ideas in solving practical issues that either comes from life or in the community.
4. To create a world where skills are been recognized and is regarded as important.
5. To create a medium where Ideas can be tested and iterated upon through collective feedback, leading to more robust and innovative outcomes.

How will CREATEHIVE work?

Skills and skills education is usually been treated as unimportant and hereby trained or taught casually. Hence, the reason why a new approach and method will be implored into the skill education.

1. It will be an online skill school.
2. Since it is going to be a school, the following will be present;
